FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TEXAS TRAIL MUSEUM TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING SATURDAY, MARCH 8TH.

PINE BLUFFS - The Texas Trail Museum will hold its Annual Meeting on Saturday afternoon, March 8, 2008, in the Meeting Room of the Old Historic High School, Pine Bluffs, at 2:00 p.m.

Open to all members and the interested public, this year's meeting will feature a speaker, Marge C. Earlywine, President of the Cowgirls of the West Museum, in Cheyenne.

"Although spring is only a few weeks away, the Board felt that more members might attend the meeting if it was held during warmer daylight hours, rather than on a chilly winter evening," President and Chairman of the Board Tony Sacco said. "Also, an interesting speaker like Margie Earlywine, the prime mover in establishing the Cowgirl's Museum, which displays artifacts, photos, records, and memorabilia of local and nationally-renowned cowgirls, should be extremely interesting."

"The meeting offers members and others the opportunity to learn what our Museum accomplished during 2007, and what its plans are for 2008," he continued. "So come on out at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, and hear about plans to continue preserving the history of eastern Laramie County."

Refreshments will be served; a door prize – a coffee table book, "The Western Cattle Trails" – valued at $49.50, will be offered, and a 50-50 raffle will be held. More information about your Museum? Visit our website at <http://www.texastrailmuseumoflaramiecounty.org>
