MUSEUM QUILTS DISPLAYED AT SUCCESSFUL PINE BLUFFS QUILT SHOW.

PINE BLUFFS – Local quilters proudly displayed their work at the Second Annual Pine Bluffs Quilters show, held this past Saturday in conjunction with the LCCC/ELCC Outreach Campus.

“Thirty-five quilts were featured this year,” Maureen O. Crea, Secretary of the organization said. “Patsy Idler, Mary Melms, Carolyn Ragsdale, and Bobbi Theobold, each entered beautiful pieces. And this year, we featured three historic quilts from the Texas Trail Museum; among them was a lovely Friendship Quilt made up of 96 panels. Each contains the names of a local family, going all the way back to the days when Eastern Laramie County was first homesteaded.”

“We were pleased to be able to exhibit quilts in this event,” President and Chairman of the Board, Tony Sacco, said. “It’s always good when many people can take advantage of the opportunity to view the work of such talented people, and, at the same time, learn a bit about the history of our area through quilting.”
